

2009 - Who's who in the Archives & Museum?

St. Boniface Archives & Museum is an ongoing but informal organization. We do not really have official titles, each sharing in what needs to be done according to his own abilities. But it is useful and fair to recognize those current members who regularly do more, and whom we could hardly do without. Giving them a title of sorts doesn't mean that's all they do! Here's a short list of the "regulars":

Evangeline Ripp, Archivist and Librarian; Carol Zolkoske, Docent and Secretary; Donald Porter, Historian and Ambassador
Charlene Pierce, Computer Services and Genealogist; Henry Strobel, Coordinator and Web Editor.
Rita Young, Francis Hendricks, Tony Beitel, Joe Spenner, Fred Ripp, Fred Schwindt, Regular Committee Members

To Vera Boedigheimer, town historian, inspiration, raconteur and friend, we dedicate these Archives today.

There are many others. Some participated a lot or a little. Some contributed labor, history, artifacts, or doughnuts. Some were welcome guests or seekers. Here they are, alphabetically. If we missed you, or if you'd just like to be included, please contact us. Thanks!
